

- Executive Committee The Shoalhaven Business Chamber President, Chance Hanlon owing to his business commitments, has taken a two month leave of absence. In Chance's absence Deputy President John Lamont will step into this position and take on the Presidents role until Chance returns.
- Chamber website If you haven't checked out the web site recently take a look! www.shoalhavenbusiness.com.au it is now full of interesting information, coming events, minutes from past executive meetings, a member's notice board section, issues and seminars. The information is updated almost daily and the site is constantly evolving. If you have any information to add, know of seminars to interest members and businesses please contact Dave Mitchell at admin@shoalhavenbusiness.com.au
- Shoalhaven on Show Lock the dates into your calendar – Fri 3rd and Saturday 4th September the Chamber's business expo Shoalhaven on Show will be happening. With the same goals as previous years – to contain escape spending, demonstrate to local residents what the Shoalhaven has to offer and encourage spending locally, this years event has been revised and revamped and will include extensive B2B opportunities, a 'career expo' component with visits from the local high schools, competitions, entertainment and more.
Full details including costs will be listed on the Chamber web site shortly and information packs can be downloaded.
Further details are available from Linda Marquis M: 0411 969 630
- Princes Highway Upgrade South Nowra The highway upgrade at South Nowra is a key current issue for the Chamber. Businesses in the Flinders Estate, South Nowra and in the southern Shoalhaven are impacted greatly by interruptions to traffic flow, changes and upgrades to the highway. You can follow the progress of meetings held with Shoalhaven City Council and the Chamber and follow links to Council minutes and RTA updates through the Chamber website www.shoalhavenbusiness.com.au/Princes-Highway-Upgrade-Nowra.html
- Economic Gardening What is it you ask? Economic Gardening is a high growth business program that can bring you lots of rewards!
The program offers a range of high-value services including professional business coaching, seminars and workshops to help build on your business success.
The program is free to local businesses. Visit the website www.economicgardening.com.au for full details or check out the member's notice board on our chamber website.
